CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA, Calif. (Aug. 11, 2015) – Carmel-by-the-Sea may be small in comparison to many California cities, but it doesn't shrink when it comes to cultural offerings. Having just conducted another stellar Carmel Bach Festival (the 78th annual!), the village is gearing up for a fall season filled with independent films, music and theater performances, plus a special ceremony sure to capture the world's attention, all within walking distance of unique and charming inns.

Here is a closer look:

- Carmel Mission will commemorate the canonization of Father Junipero Serra, founder of
