

Exploring the culinary and cultural riches around the globe

Home
TV
Cookbook
Travel
Lauren
Recipes
Press
Events
Advertise
Drink Dining
News
Guides
Fashion

Monday, November 2, 2015

Guide to Carmel, CA

G+ +1 Recommend this on Google

Hop on a flight to California and enjoy the charm and relaxation of Carmel, CA.

How to Get There: After a beautiful trip to Napa/Sonoma, we headed south for a quick drive to Carmel, CA. The drive down the Pacific Coast Highway has to be the most spectacular in the country.

Where to Stay: We stayed in town at the Normandy Inn. This no frills hotel has a great location for viewing the art, eating at the restaurants and shopping around town. There's free breakfast, but it is pretty limited.

#6 ranked blog
zomato

Follow @capitalcooking

Buy Now!

4BITTEN

Sign Up

POPULAR POSTS

Giveaway: Win Two Tickets to Cuba Libre's 5th Anniversary Celebration!

Guide to Carmel, CA

Menu ReVamp: Taberna del Alabardero

Capital
5.3k likes

Like Page

Be the first of your friends to like this

ABOUT

Delicious Burgers from 400 Degrees

Where to Eat: Our favorite meal in Carmel was at Cantinetta Luca.

Giant onion rings from 400 Degrees

Television travel and food series and blog exploring the culinary and cultural riches of capital cities around the globe. Find the latest news in food around town, behind the scenes secrets about filming the show, recipes, travel, cocktails and more!

Contact me at lauren@capitalcookingshow.com.

BLOG ARCHIVE

- ▼ 2015 (278)
 - ▼ November (6)
 - My Thanksgiving Hero
 - Thinking of Drinking: Spiced Hot Chocolate
 - Recipe: Roasted Chicken
 - Cuba Libre Celebrates 5 Years in DC
 - Nominate Your Thanksgiving Hero!
 - Guide to Carmel, CA
 - October (27)
 - September (26)
 - August (24)
 - July (29)
 - June (31)
 - May (32)
 - April (24)
 - March (28)
 - February (24)
 - January (27)
- 2014 (319)
- 2013 (512)
- 2012 (626)
- 2011 (451)
- 2010 (410)
- 2009 (214)
- 2008 (144)

CONTRIBUTORS

- capitalcooking
- Laurie Wallin
- Matthew Ross
- Courtney Konkell
- Tom Natan
- Lauren DeSantis
- Lauren Rittermann
- Rosie
- Melinda Contreras
- Lauren
- Eat What's On Your Plate
- Claire Goldman

How about that sundae? Find it at 400 Degrees.

400 Degrees serves delicious burgers. They have the freshest ingredients and it is an awesome family restaurant.

Check out breakfast at Little Swiss Cafe.

DISCLOSURE

From time to time, Capital Cooking is paid for promotion and given complimentary meals. Also, some of the products mentioned on the blog may have been provided by their manufacturers.

VIDEO CLIPS

powered by YouTube

Stop into Sushi Heaven for a healthy lunch.

Where to Drink: You can get a Carmel wine pass and go on a wine walk before dinner. The wines aren't really comparable to the wine we drank in Napa/Sonoma, but they are still pretty decent.

#babycapcook liked the bath tub in Dawn's Dream tasting room.

We stopped into Dawn's Dream, Figge Cellars, and Caraccioli Cellars.

We also drove inland and checked out Jarman. Their wine was the best in Carmel.

What to Do: HIKING! The hiking is phenomenal. We loved Big Sur and Point Lobos State Reserve. Wear long pants because there is lots of poison oak on trails. It is a town of relaxation and leisure. Walk around the charming streets. Swing into art galleries. Shop in local stores. Stroll along the beach.

What are you waiting for? Book your trip to Carmel, CA now!

- zomato
- zomato
- zomato

0 Comments

Sort by

Oldest

Add a comment...

Facebook Comments Plugin

Facebook Blogger Plugin

Posted by Lauren DeSantis at 10:33 AM 0 Comments
Labels: California, drink, Travel, wine

0 Comments

Capital Cooking Show

1 Login

Recommend

Share

Sort by Best

Start the discussion...

Be the first to comment.

ALSO ON CAPITAL COOKING SHOW

WHAT'S THIS?

Capital Cooking with Lauren DeSantis:
Around the Globe: The Steenberg Hotel

2 comments • 2 years ago

 capitalcooking — Thanks Claire. I wish I was there right now!!

Capital Cooking with Lauren DeSantis:
Opening: Smashburger Bethesda

1 comment • 2 years ago

 JMan NYC — Hold the SMASHBURGERS - I will be there in April!

Capital Cooking with Lauren DeSantis:
The Plainly Perfect Tour to Delaplane

2 comments • 2 years ago

 capitalcooking — We'd love to.

Capital Cooking with Lauren DeSantis:
Menu Planning: Autumn Dinner

2 comments • 2 years ago

 capitalcooking — That's awesome! You'll love the bread pudding. It is really easy to make and tastes delicious. You can throw ...

Subscribe

Add Disqus to your site

Privacy

Newer Post

Home

Older Post

Subscribe to: Post Comments (Atom)

Cook Eat Share

FEATURED AUTHOR

view my recipes

