

The 30 Be

SUBSCRIBE

The 30 Best Small Cities in America: Readers' Choice Awards 2014

Written by Debbie Strong • July 29, 2015

30 PHOTOS

Here are the small American charmers, as voted on by Condé Nast Traveler readers. All have populations of under 100,000, and often as much to offer as cities ten times their size.

6 ISSUES FOR $6 SUBSCRIBE

27/ 30

4. Carmel-by-the-Sea, CA

Romance and relaxation are the order of the day in this exquisite California town. While it's a perfect getaway for lovebirds, you'll also find plenty of top shopping and family-friendly amusements. Garlands Ranch Regional Park is a hidden gem for long, easy walks in pretty eucalyptus and sycamore-dotted flats. For overnights, the Bernardus Lodge and Winery in nearby Carmel Valley has eight acres of its own vineyards and more than 300 rose bushes.

Michael Howell/Getty

CONDÉ NAST
Traveler

Leather Back Cover
Extra Battery +
Charging Cradle

FREE with the LG G4

LEARN MORE

Offer valid from July 1 - 31