

A trio of Carmel hotel deals

Carmel's The Hideaway reopened earlier this year after a complete reimagining and redesign of the old Cobblestone Inn. (Photo: The Hideaway)

By JACKIE BURRELL | jburrell@bayareanewsgroup.com

PUBLISHED: September 28, 2016 at 9:00 am | UPDATED: September 25, 2016 at 9:52 am

Remember when hotel rates varied by high and low season? Now “low” has been rebranded, and we’re kinda loving the new name, as well as the deals some hotels are offering during autumn’s “secret season.” Here’s a trio in Carmel:

This fall, the Coachman’s Inn is offering a “coastal escape” package through Oct. 27 that includes 20 to 30 percent off regular room rates, as well as complimentary cookies and afternoon wine tastings.

The Carmel Country Inn is celebrating not only the secret season, but the end of a construction project next door with a $100 “all’s quiet once again” discount off two-night stays between Oct. 1 and March 31, excluding holidays.

And Carmel’s newly reimagined and redesigned The Hideaway is offering a midweek deal that lets you stay three nights, but only pay for two.

SPONSORED CONTENT

What Happens When You Compare Century-Old Photos of Wyoming

By Theda WY

To most, 100 years is more than a lifetime. It’s 100 birthdays. It’s 36,500 sunrises and sunsets. A grand total of 876,000 hours. In short, it’s...